The "Hello" menu: your account and security

- Account Details: your name, address and account email. Keep them correct: invoices and emails depend on them.
- User Management: invite someone to manage the account with you with permissions you choose.
- Email History: every email we sent you, including hosting details. See finding your emails.
- Change Password and Security Settings: turn on two-factor authentication, link your Google account, and update your security question.

Tip: turn on two-factor authentication: it stops anyone logging in even with your password. If you forget your password, see password recovery.
